

Under One Sun!

A day of singing songs for Earth Day from the African continent to the Caribbean

with Molara Awen & Mary-Anne Roberts

Saturday 22nd April 10 - 4

Canton Uniting Church, Cowbridge Road East, Cardiff CF5 1GY

These two talented singing leaders will take you on a heart-warming singing journey; sharing songs of joy and peace from the continent of Africa and beyond and songs sung by Mary-Anne's aunts and Grandma as they carried out their daily tasks in rural Trinidad. Expect to move and to be moved!

Cost £40 or £35 early bird booking (before Friday 24th March)

Booking details & further info: paulinedown7@gmail.com

Molara is an inspirational singer, songwriter, performer & artist whose maternal grandfather was a founder member of the George Formby Society, whilst her father's cousin was the infamous Fela Kuti. She was a founder member of Zion Train and has worked with Femi Kuti, Baka Beyond, Mad Professor and Ruts DC. She started One Voice choir in 2005 to celebrate her love of international harmonies & rhythms & was a founder of Narberth Acappella Festival. A former trustee of the NVN & a political activist, Molara has delivered music and arts education since 1992 to people aged 0 - 106 of differing abilities and backgrounds.

Mary-Anne Roberts-O'Reilly is a freelance artist/performer who has lived in Wales since 1990. She was born and grew up in Trinidad and Tobago and teaches and performs through the prism of Trinidad Carnival traditions, even when performing with the thrillingly compelling early music duo Bragod who perform throughout Wales and for international audiences.